

3 YOUNG PEOPLE

#BARBARA

- She is a 22 independent and Strong woman.
- She fights against sexism and the Patriarcal society. She hate paternalism and she is an involved feminist.
- Her name is from the French singer Barbara who sang against Aids and for the peace and friendship between France and Germany in the70's 80's after the WW2.
- She studies politic/social & economic sciences.
- She calls herself a bisexual.
- She likes vintage and old school style.
- She is young, free, and enjoys life.

#LÉON

- He is a 20 Years old young man.
- His name comes from Léon Trotsky a Russian revolutionary who fight against Nazis and against Stalin's USSR. Léon is very involved in politics, for freedom and more equality
- He is against the established order.
- He doesn't describe himself as Straight/Bi/Gay but he thinks that every human being can love every human being.
- He challenges his emotions/ love/ desires/ feelings.

- He studies History and philosophy.

#MATHÉO

- He is a 18-19 years old young man.
- He is more of a typical English young man. He is from a British family who loves the queen and all the national traditions. It was forbidden to talk about politics at home.
- He is not sociable, not sure of himself, a bit shy, he is a children of the system.
- He calls himself straight because it is the "normal way" but never really thought of it.
- He likes this kind of adventure, this new excitement, the break in his routine.
- He wear an American Indian headdress at the beginning of the video because he kind of like the notion of power even if he is deeply convince that it is not for him. He is a complex character that care about the "right way" and the society "good way" but breaks for love .

#THE TRIO

- Their relation is not simple. The excitement of this new life. The reject of the traditional codes of society inside this capitalist society. They are building a three-cornered couple without hierarchy and any form of domination.

